BUTLER SUCCESS CONTINUES

NEW YORKER'S JUVENILES KEEP UP WINNING RECORD AT LAUREL PARK.

Pebbles Shows a Smart Parformance in Taking Annapolis Stakes After Gnat Wins a Selling Handicap.

Baltimore, Md., October 6.—James Butler kept up his winning streak at Laurel today when Pebbles and High Noon finished first and second in the Annapolis Stakes, for two-year-olds, and Gnat beat home four other starters in the third race, a selling handleap for two-year-olds. The performance of Pebbles was a sterling one. He followed the fast early pace set by his stable mate, High Noon, and casily passed him midway of the stretch to win ridden out in 1:12. The Annapolis Stakes was worth $2.240 net and attracted a field of eight starters. Gnat, the other Butler winner had an easy task in scoring over Change and Stalwart Helen. The entry of Susan B. will in the future be refused as a result of her fractious acting at the post today, in which she greatly delayed the start and interfered with other horses.

The stakes that are to be offered during H. D. Brown's winter meeting at Havana, Cuba, have been framed and are in the hands of the printer. The books will be out by the end of the week. Mr. Brown has promised that he will have a program that will attract the good horses.

Judge Charles F. Price left for Louisville, where he will preside in the stand during the Churchill Downs meeting which opens Friday.

William Garth will have a formidable lot of impers in his string next season. Some lot to finimers in his string next season. Some of the horses he has been racing have already been retired for the season and there are other green ones that he will send to the farm before long to rest for what is offered in 1915. Bally Bay is probably the best of the Garth jumpers and Mr. Garth said today that he was perfectly sound, though he had let up on him because a leg filled slightly during the Saratoga meeting.

Greg., a three-year-old that races under the silks of Samuel Ross, the Washington sportsman, will be gelded during the winter.

While there are few three-year-olds here that will be sent to Locust Valley for the Harbor Hill fup, the race is attracting a great deal of attention among the horsemen. Chupadero and S was ladies' day brought out a large number of the fair sex. Souvenir programs were presented to the fair visitors.

Besides winning with Colors, Edward McBride accounted for the closing race of the day with Supreme, a heavily supported second choice. Jockey J. Connors carried off the riding honors by piloting both of the McBride winners.

Gene Moyne, after an absence of one day, was back in the layers' line this afternoon, as was Al Valentine.

The visitors this 'afternoon included Ed Corrigan and Hugh Penny. The latter journeyed over from Laurel to witness the running of his former charges, now in the stable of F. S. Hackett.

FIRST SHIPMENT OF SEASON TO JUAREZ.

Missoula, Mont. October 6.—Tomorrow there will leave here for Juarez the first shipment of horses to go forward this season to that winter racing ground on the international boundary opposite Ll Paso, where a meeting of one hundred or more days duration will begin on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26. The shipment will embrace the El Palomar stables, General Marchmont, The Cinder, Heidelberg and Headfort; H. W. Hoag's Orba Smile, Kid Nelson and Amon: W. Gemmell's Swart's Hill. Decency and Bob Farley; E. D. Kaufman's Dusky Dave and Senator James; Mrs. C. I. Crippen's Orimar Lad and Bannaingo; C. R. Richards' Rosiris and F. Bliss' Patriotic. These horses have been racing at the Western Montana fair meeting here. Two carloads are to leave Helena within a day or two for Juarez via Phoenix, Ariz., where they will first take part in the Arizona State Fair meeting.

NEW ORLEANS RACING FUND NOW $25,000.

New Orleans, La. October 6.—Practically the whole of the purse guarantee fund of $25.000 for the opening period of the proposed race meeting here beginning January I, has been subscribed. Assurances of additional subscriptions were given Tuesday to the directors of the Business Mens Racing Association, of which I. B. Rennyson is president, and there no longer appears to be any doubt as to the ultimate success of the plan of New Orleans business men to revive racing. J. E. Pearce, local mothon picture magnate, was elected one of the directors last night. A. B. Maginnis was also elected a director. This makes a total of eleven directors elected to date. elected to date.

SOCIETY WILL FLOCK TO THE DOWNS.

New Louisville Jockey Club in High Favor with Notable Folks of Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., October 6.—Animated was the scene at Caurchill Downs today. The morning hours found the great course over which so many noted horses have raced brilliantly, literally alive with horses, with scores of turfmen looking on. The track is in superb condition for good racing. It has a good cushion on top with firm and safe going beneath.

track is in superb condition for good racing. It has a good cushion on top with firm and safe going beneath.

President Charles F. Grainger and Treasurer H. C. Applegate are at the course from early morning until late in the evening perfecting every detail for the opening of the big eight-days meeting next Friday. Secretary L. H. Davis, assisted by W. H. Sheiley and J. B. Campbell, is looking after the racing end of the preparations and assigning the horses to proper quarters.

Most of the big stables have moved over from Douglas Park and all the strings that raced there now have at least a division of their horses at the Downs.

Envene Elrod, who has charge of the betting ring, is on hand with his able assistants putting everything in order in the administration building. The mutuel machines have already been put in place in the betting ring.

President Grainger had a delightful trip to the Laurel track in Maryland, where he went to visit Manager M. J. Winn and see the workings of the twenty-six machines that the local firm of which he is president manufactured and set up at that course. They are twenty-six in number and of the latest model in style. Mr. Grainger's concern is constantly making improvements in these devices, which are gradually reaching perfection.

As usual the meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club will apocal strongly to society folks in this city and throughout the state. This track has been the leader among racing plants in commanding the patronage of the society element in Kentucky and the policy it has thus set has been followed at Laurel to a great extent and much of the flourishing condition of the meeting now on at that track is due to this policy. The New Louisville Jockey has reason to be proud of its magnificent club house. President Grainger and Manager Winn have bent every effort towards making that structure commodious and convenient. Wealthy folks enjoy racing when they can experience little inconvenience and really have a pleasureable time. Such is always possible at Churchill Downs.

When the historic St. Leger was first run at Churchill Downs in 1875, the club house was located on the opposite side of the track from where it is now. In that old club house Col. M. Lewis Clark entertained the governor and other noted public men and President Grainger will do the same thing this fall as he has since he has held the position of president of the New Louisville Jockey Club.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey McDaniel has arrived at Bowie and will ride free lance.

Canto was claimed when he last raced at Bowie by Nat Byer, agent for H. Watterson, for $700.

James Butler's good colt, Last Coin, carries considerable flesh. He is as big as a three-year-old now and is equipped with wonderfully powerfu shoulders and quarters. His action is perfect anhe appears able to reach the top of his speed is half a dozen strides.

W. J. Burkholder, owner of Lady Bountiful, died a day or two ago at Toronto of typhoid fever con-tracted while at King Edward Park. Several other horsemen at Toronto are suffering from the same disease. Burkholder's body has been forwarded to his home in Louisville.

ms frome in Louisville.

Jake Marklein and Lou Cahn have purchase from J. G. Greener the two-year-old gelding Martinos, for $1.500. Mr. Marklein also has some yearlings which will race in his colors next season one is a filly by Garry Herrmann and another is colt by Plaudit. He may get together a stable to campaign at one of the winter tracks.

Whatever may be the attenue of the confident.

Campaign at one of the winter tracks.

Whatever may be the outcome of the conflict between Bowie and Laurel, it is evident that the opposition is injuring both associations. Seventy-five per cent of those who go to the new track would be at Laurel but for the conflict and vice versal fracing associations have any regard for financial results, they will see to it that there are no more of these conflicts in the future.—Baltimore News.

Stakes keep going up in Australia, and if the exact amount of prize-money distributed in 1913-14 could be arrived at it would be found that it exceeded any previous season's total, but there will be more next year, says The Australasian. A really first-class race horse is now a valuable property in Australia. The richest prize ever run for in Australia was the Melbourne Cup of $51,159, won by Carbine in 1890, but weight-for-age races are much more valuable than they were in the days of the great New Zealander.

DEATH CLAIMS NOTED ENGLISH TURFMAN.

Charles Assheton-Smith died of Sir Charles Assheton-Smith died of heart trouble at his home in London September 24, after a long, painful confinement to his bed. The dead man was England's foremost turfman in the line of steeplechasing, and in his time thrice enjoyed the greatly coveted honor of winning the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase, carrying off that great event with Cloister in 1893, Jerry M. in 1912, and Coverteout in 1913. Cloister and Jerry M. each carried the record topweight for the race of 1.5 pounds, but Coverteout only carried 169 pounds when he won last year. The latter tried to win it again this year and after he failed, Sir Charles purchased the winner, Sunloch, for $20,000.

Sir Charles Gordon Assheton-Smith, whose home was Vaynol Park, Bangor, North Wales, was born on April 16, 1851, was a deputy-lieutenant of Carnarvonshire, and an alderman of the same county. He was the son of the late Robert George Duff, and assumed the name of Assheton-Smith in lieu of Duff in 1905. The deceased baronet married first, in 1876, the Hon. Maud Frances Vivian (who died in 1893), the second daughter of the second Lord Vivian; and secondly, in 1894, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Algernon Thomas Brinsley Sheridan, of Frampton Court. Dorset; and thirdly, in 1902, he married Sybil Mary, daughter of the late Col. Henry William Verschoyle, Sir Charles' help is Robert George Vivian Duff, who was born in 1876, and married Lady Juliet Lowther, only daughter of the fourth Earl of Lonsdale.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

London official circles admit that, while two weeks ago the French occupied Lassigny, just west of Noyon the Gerneck by the French, is now a German position. The fighting near St, Quentin, to which point the French forced their advance ten days ago, now is being carried on fully thirty miles to the westward. The following official communication was given out in Paris: "On our left wing, the front is extending more and more widely. Very important masses of German cavalry have been reported the environs of Lille, coming from forceoperant to the environs of Lille, coming from forceoperant to the north of the Ille of the environs of Lille, coming from forceoperant to the north of the Ille of the lille of the lille of the lille of the lille, and the vicinity of Arras and on the right bank of the river Somme the situation shows little change. Between the Somme and the Oise there have been alternate advances and withdrawais. Near Lassigny the enemy undertook an important attack, which, however, failed." An official statement issued at Berlin says that the German armies in France are making a steady advance on both wings of the battle line continually forceshments. It also statement and the lines of investment are being drawn closer about the city. The statement fellows: "Fighting continues night and day, particularly on our right wing, where the enemy is stablornly resisting our offensive. He is being driven back, however. When we was a particularly sharp attack in an attempt to surprise us and severe lighting ensued for six hours. He was repulsed and repulsed in the center the artillery duel continues. The stration in general indicates that a decisive result is not yet at however. German troops the surprise of the center works are now being bombarded. Our success in the eastern area has met with no check. We continue to a vance." German troops are permitted to occupy the spires of the churches or the roofs of the tall utilidings. It is known that the pressure is becoming so serious ban cipated in the ignting. Between Polena and Aknosi the Hungarian dispatch says, Russians again at-tempted to break through the allied German and Austrian lines, but were forced to retreat. The Austrian and German troops pursued hotly the Russians and captured many prisoners.

As a concession to "ublic opinion, particularly that in the United States, Germany will sign Secretary of State Bryan's peace treaty. It is expected that Austria-Hungary will follow the example thus set by the kaiser and sign a similar treaty with the United States.

Strang Won $77.70 on the recent Louisville meeting with a $2 bet on all of the first three selections in his DAILY RACE LETTER HANDICAP. This letter is mailed you every evening at 5 p. m., so it will reach you in time the following day. Charley Brown 30.1 · · · cocond 30-1 :: second was the horse at highest odds selected by the Riggs System Monday. Tuesday's results unknown when this advertisement was written. System does not call for play in every race. Every winner claimed is verified by the management of this paper. System is ready for action day it is received and is sent complete, requiring no one after purchase. It proves its wonderful winning qualities not one day, but almost every day. All tracks look alike and its success is uniform. Use special delivery or telegraph to order it today.

Terms, $5 first payment, and the balance, $95, payable out of its earnings as you go along and make money through the system.
